DAY'S EYE

SAMPSON TECHNICAL INSTITUTE
CLINTON, NORTH CAROLINA

1971

VOL. IV

It Has Been Said That Past Is Prologue. This Is Especially True For STI. Since 1965, Thousands Have Entered The Open Doors Of "The Old Indian School," And On This Campus, History Has Been Made, Challenges Have Been Met, Answers Have Been Found, Friendships Have Been Made, And Maturity Has Been Achieved. The Years Have Passed, And Still People Come. The Buildings Have Been Adequate, But The Crowded Conditions Are Too Great. The Future Looks Bright, Promising A New Campus – With Greater Space; More Breathing Room; More Labs, Shops, And Classrooms – A Campus Which Is So Desperately Needed And Of Which We Will Be So Proud! We Have The Site – We Have An Illustrious History – We Have The Call To Greatness – Now We Must Work Together To Provide The Kind Of College Which Will Allow STI To Assume Its Rightful Place Of Leadership Among Community Colleges. DAY'S EYE Thoughtfully Reviews The Immediate Past And Directs STI Toward An Exciting Future.
